

DOINGS OF SOCIETY IN AND AROUND WASHINGTON

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and her house guest, Mrs. Harper, attended the morning service at the Central Presbyterian Church, while Miss Jessie Wilson and Mr. George McLean Harper went to St. John's Church.

Despite the inclement weather, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Jessie Wilson took their guests for a motor trip about the city in the afternoon.

Miss Margaret Wilson is in New York for a few days.

The Russian Ambassador and Mrs. Bakmeteff were entertained at dinner last night by Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond at their residence, in Massachusetts Avenue. Covers were laid for twenty.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels will be the guests of Prof. and Mrs. E. F. Andrews at a "studio breakfast" today at their residence, in Sixteenth Street.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the new British Ambassador, reached New York on Saturday, and soon after his arrival here he will be presented to the President.

The British Ambassador is no stranger to Washington society, having been a member of the embassy staff some years ago. He is an intimate friend of former President Roosevelt, and was his best man at his marriage to Mrs. Roosevelt, the ceremony taking place at St. George's, Hanover Square, England.

Miss Feroline Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, whose marriage to Capt. Robert Wallace is to take place May 15, will have as her bridesmaids Miss Katherine Jennings and Miss Amylita Tabbot.

Mrs. Robert G. Paxton, U. S. A., will be Capt. Wallace's best man, and among those who will act as ushers are Paymaster John Merriam, U. S. N.; Mr. Horace Westcott, Mr. Chandler Hale, Mr. Reynolds Hitt, and Mr. Frederick Hale.

The ceremony is to take place at St. John's Church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Connecticut Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Garfield, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. William Holland Wilmer, have taken an apartment in H Street for the spring season.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stotesbury have come to Washington for the horse show at Fort Myer, Va., which commences today, and the National Capital Horse Show, which begins on Saturday, and have opened their residence in New Hampshire Avenue during their stay here.

Two weddings on Wednesday will claim society's attention. Although Miss Bates Couderc and Mr. Thomas Riggs, Jr., are to be married in New York, they are both so well known here that their many Washington friends are taking a deep interest in the event, which will be celebrated at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frederic R. Couderc, 333 Park Avenue.

The ceremony will be performed by Mr. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, and only relatives have been invited. Miss Bates will have no attendants, and there will be no reception. Mr. Riggs will have Mr. Michael W. Pope, of Baltimore, for his best man.

The second wedding to take place on Wednesday is that of Miss Mabel Hume and Mr. James Leland Howard. Miss Hume is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Hume, and is extremely popular in society. Mr. Howard is a graduate of Yale University.

It is to be a house wedding, and only the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom will be present at the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Parker Phillips, of Virginia, a cousin of the bride.

Invitations have been sent out to the reception, which will follow the ceremony.

Mrs. Lyon Horner will be her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Howard's brother will act as best man.

Among the passengers sailing on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II, of the North German Lloyd Line, tomorrow from New York for London, Paris, and Bremen are the following from Washington: Hon. and Mrs. Timothy Ansberry, Mr. and Mrs. Klein, Mrs. Norman Williams, Miss Anna Leitner, Father Thomas Moore, Mrs. Henry Schick, Hon. and

SENORITA DE PENA.

The charming daughter of the Minister of Uruguay and Mrs. de Pena, who entertained at a large ball Friday evening in honor of the Misses Wilson.

Mrs. E. P. Kettewring, Mrs. Wesley Merritt, Mr. Karl Flack, Miss Kathie Mandl, Mr. Gustav Riedel, and Mr. Gustav Schilling.

Representative and Mrs. Samuel J. Tribble, of Athens, Ga., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Tribble, to Mr. Samuel Kenney Dick, of Atlanta, Ga., the wedding to take place June 15, at the First Presbyterian Church in Athens.

Miss Tribble is well known in Washington and is popular socially here, as she is in her Southern home. Her father is one of the senior members of Congress from his State and comes from distinguished stock, as does also the family of Mr. Dick.

Mrs. Tribble and Miss Tribble left Washington yesterday for Athens, where they will remain until after the wedding.

Maj. von Herwarth, German military attaché, will go to New York on Tuesday and will leave on board the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria on Wednesday to join Mme. von Herwarth abroad.

Mrs. Lloyd H. Chandler, wife of Lieut. Commander Chandler, U. S. N., has sent out invitations to a tea in honor of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, tomorrow afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Chandler are occupying the residence at 214 California Street, which is owned by Gen. and Mrs. George M. Sternberg, and if the weather proves kind the tea will probably be held in the lovely old-fashioned garden which surrounds the large house.

Mrs. I. T. Mann will give a luncheon at the Chevy Chase Club on Thursday.

Interest of society at home and abroad will be centered in Baltimore during the first week in May, for two weddings of international importance have been scheduled to take place in that city. On Monday, May 13, at the home of Mrs. Merritt, Mr. Karl Flack, Miss Kathie Mandl, Mr. Gustav Riedel, and Mr. Gustav Schilling.

SOUTHERN SOCIETY EXPECTS BIG CROWD

Annual Meeting Will Be Addressed by Prominent Speakers and the President Will Attend.

Senator Ransdell of Louisiana, Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, Representative Hobson of Alabama, Senator Williams of Mississippi, Secretary of State Bryan, and Claude N. Bennett, of this city, will be the speakers at the annual gathering of the members of the Southern Society of Washington, to be held on the evening of May 16, at the New National Theater. President Wilson and practically all the members of his Cabinet are expected to be present.

Every year this society gives an entertainment of some kind at which the leaders of Southern life in the Senate and House, as well as lawyers, bankers, and business men meet and shake hands in remembrance of their boyhood days in "Dixie." Last year a banquet was given at the Raleigh Hotel, but this year it was decided to have some of the foremost men in the present-day history of the country speak.

Secretary Bryan will speak on "A Tribute from the West to the South;" Representative Hobson, president of the society, "The Southern Society;" Senator Williams, "The South and the Nation," and Claude N. Bennett, "The South Today," illustrated with colored lantern slides and motion pictures.

This is the first time the Southerners have met since President Wilson moved into the White House, and this alone will be a drawing card.

The illustrated talk, which will be given by Mr. Bennett, causes the members of the society to feel they will have a big house.

Mr. Bennett said today he felt much encouraged by the interest which not only Southerners are showing in the occasion but also those from other parts of the country. "This will be a Southern entertainment," he said, "but one which we hope will prove national in its scope. We have secured the best speakers to be had, and we feel certain they will address a large crowd."

PERMANENT MARKET MAY BE ESTABLISHED

Managers of Horse Auction Are Elated Over the Number of Entries Received from Owners.

Four thousand horse fanciers, located in every State in the Union, will be furnished with a list of the entries for the auction sale of thoroughbreds to be conducted as a feature of the National Capital Horse Show, May 3, 5, and 7.

Melvin C. Hazen, general manager of the show, and John O. Green, sales manager, have been busy since the printed. The object of the sale is to lay the foundation for the establishment in Washington of a permanent horse market.

Every effort is being made to attract a large number of bidders, as it is believed the ultimate success of the plan will depend largely upon the results of the attempt to launch it this spring.

The horse show management is elated over the number and quality of the horses entered for the auction. Approximately 100 animals are slated to go under the hammer, including some of the best known show horses of the country.

Preparations for the show have been completed fully a week earlier than usual. The supply of grand stand boxes and all box stalls have been engaged.

Mr. Hazen plans an innovation in the gate keeping and ushering system. United States soldiers from Fort Myer, in full uniform, will be in charge of the gates and the seating of spectators.

A bugler will call the entries to the various classes. Riders this year will have numbers displayed across their backs instead of on the arms. Photographers will be provided with a stand.

Several lots of tankards have been spread in the show ring. The first lot of horses to be exhibited is expected to reach the show grounds today. Manager Hazen has entered three of his own thoroughbreds—Lord Channing, Richmond, and Estelle.

Maj. Gen. Cochrane Dies.

Chester, Pa., April 27.—Maj. Gen. Henry Clay Cochrane, United States Marine Corps, retired, died at his home here today. At the time of his retirement he was the ranking officer of the corps.

Cottolene food is never greasy

Cottolene is a vegetable fat — made from the purest and choicest cotton oil. It contains not an ounce of hog fat.

Cottolene makes delicious pastry—crisp and flaky. For frying, it can be heated to a much higher temperature than butter or lard, and forms a coating which prevents the absorption of the fat.

Cottolene is every bit as good as, and much cheaper than butter for cooking. It is far better than lard; it is richer, and will go one-third farther than either. It is the most economical cooking fat on the market.
